Bread is present at breakfast early in the morning, through snacks, and until late at dinner. In this daily routine, in addition to needing bread that gives us quality and versatility, we need a well-preserved bread. The gourmet baguette has a very dense crumb, a golden crust, very crispy and fine. With its soft and floured texture, it gives it a rustic touch. This thin and elongated baguette has a sweet and light flavor that makes it a bread to combine with any kind of food. It is ideal as table bread for every day, for sandwiches and on toasted slices of bread at breakfast.
